To Whom It May Concern:

Jason Israel has worked with World's Global Source (WGS) over the last couple of years on various projects related to our company's computer network.

Jason is extremely thorough, detail oriented, knowledgeable, reliable and highly invested in everything he has worked on for us. He is determined to make sure everything is working as it should and always makes sure everything is resolved to our satisfaction. He never leaves us hanging as he knows our computer network is our company's lifeline.

We feel secure in relying on Jason to take care of our company's computer and network needs. He is an extremely valuable asset to our organization!!!

Best Regards,

Melissa Bernstein
